

Dear Mr. Motiwala,

Innovation is in our DNA and is what drives us every day to create new trends. We bring together the creativity, experience and unique expertise of our employees and our partners from science and industry. With innovative solutions such as our ARTYSIO Packaging range and the PERIGON joint venture, we are developing new markets that will consolidate our success in the long term and open up new potential for our customers.

But innovation is not the only thing we care about: sustainability and ESG are also extremely important to us. Find out what we are doing at Sihl to ensure that economy and ecology go hand in hand – for a more liveable future for us and our grandchildren.

We hope you enjoy reading this newsletter!

Best wishes from Düren, Bern and Fiskeville

► ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND ESG FOR A FUTURE WORTH LIVING

The protection of our environment and environmental social governance (ESG) are important components of our success. For example, we believe in clean driving so now only buy hybrid or electric vehicles for use as company cars. And Stefan Schmitz has recently been appointed as the new ESG Manager of the Sihl Group. His remit will be to further develop our ESG strategy, give it substance and implement it across the entire Sihl Group, because ESG is our guiding principle and the thread that runs through everything we do.
